

BIG WALNUT FRIENDS WHO SHARE HOUSEHOLD ITEMS NEEDED

All household items can be considered for donations. This would include bedroom furniture, living room furniture and kitchen appliances, both large and small. Please note the conditions that are in place for accepting the donations.

If you are donating items, please note the following:

- Big Walnut Friends Who Share does not have the facilities to repair or clean donated items
- All appliances must be clean and in working order.
- Mattress should not be stained, ripped or damaged.
- Household items such as sofa or chairs should not be ripped or stained.
- Clothing should be clean and ready to wear.
- If you have the ability to deliver donated items to a client's home, this would be a great service.
- If you are delivering items, the delivery should only be to the front door. You should not be expected to move items to an upstairs or downstairs room.
- There is limited storage for large items at the BWFWS facility on High Street .
- Larger household can now be housed at our storage unit.
- Generally, any living room furniture, bedroom furniture and kitchen items in good condition would be candidates for donation.
- Big Walnut Friends Who Share reserves the right to reject any item based on its condition.
